CLERK
U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

RE: The distribution of previously paid for Mitchell Gold and Bob Williams orders in Case #: 1:23-bk-11385

Dear Judge Selber Silverstein:

This afternoon, we called Ryder Last Mile to schedule delivery of the Mitchell Gold order we placed and paid for on February 8th, 2023. To our shock and dismay, we were told that Mitchell Gold and Bob Williams had filed for bankruptcy and Ryder could not release the items to us or schedule delivery.

We recognize that bankruptcy is a complex process and there are many parties involved. However, our position - and those like us who are waiting for delivery of items already purchased - seems different than most. The items we're hoping to receive are sitting in a Ryder warehouse a few miles from our home in Portland ready for delivery (also paid for in February) after being wholly purchased by us. We paid in full for these items back in February - in good faith that they would be produced as ordered, which they've been - and are the sole owners.

As you consider how to handle this situation, we hope you will consider the unique injustice of our position. While the items are currently located in a Ryder warehouse, they are not as far as we can tell assets of Mitchell Gold or PNC or anyone else: we paid in full for them, including delivery, and simply want to receive them. We have paid both for the items themselves and for the delivery service; it's unreasonable and unjust for Mitchell Gold or PNC to take both our payment and the products.

Enclosed you'll find a copy of the invoice, which shows the following items purchased and paid for:

- Two Hunter 85" sofas
- One jute rope stool
- One teak ladder
- Two woven banana leaf baskets

It is our understanding that you are the only party able to release these purchased and paid-in-full items to us and we write to you with the strong hope you will see fit to do so.

If we can provide any additional information please don't hesitate to contact us by phone or email. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Eve Callahan Scott Taylor
